

A free market is exactly that... free. Everyone should have access to information and XM traffic reports are a very valuable service. They may one day be coupled with navigation systems to reduce traffic congestion and save valuable energy resources.

Dan Gingras